

GRAMMY Museum's Music Revolution Project

Frequently Asked Questions

- How will students be chosen for the GRAMMY Museum's Music Revolution Project?
 - Students who submit the required application, recommendation letter and performance video will be reviewed by the application board. Once these semi-finalists are chosen, they will be asked back for a one-on-one interview with program directors.
- What is the age range for the GRAMMY Museum's Music Revolution Project?
 - Students between the ages of 14 – 21 will be able to participate.
- Are students from outside of Kansas City able to participate?
 - For the 2014 program, students are required to live in the greater Kansas City area. Subsequent programs will cast a larger demographic range in regards to applicants.
- How much will it cost for my student to participate in The GRAMMY Museum's Music Revolution Project?
 - Nothing! The Music Revolution Project is free for students who are chosen to participate.
- What are the program dates?
 - The GRAMMY Museum's Music Revolution Project will take place from June 16, 2014 to July 11, 2014 with Friday, July 4, 2014 off in observance of Independence Day.
- What are the hours my student will need to be at Sprint Center?
 - The program will run Monday through Friday, from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM.
- How will my student get to Sprint Center?
 - Students are required to have their own transportation to Sprint Center. Parking will be provided for the students.
- Will my student need to bring lunch?
 - Yes. Please have students bring a bagged lunch or money to purchase lunch in the area surrounding Sprint Center.